

Bible Verses ~ Moral Lessons

To initiate discussion in your children's ministry, we've provided a relevant Bible verse for each moral lesson.

Respect your neighbor's property.

Jesus replied, "Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honor your father and mother, and love your neighbor as yourself." -Matthew 19:19

Foolish curiosity often leads to misfortune.

Folly is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline drives it far from him. -Proverbs 22:15

Moderation is always best.

It is not good to eat too much honey, nor is it honorable to seek one's own honor. -Proverbs 25:27

There is light and dark within all of us.

For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light. -Ephesians 5:8

I saw that wisdom is better than folly, just as light is better than darkness. -Ecclesiastes 2:13

I will lead the blind by ways they have not known, along unfamiliar paths I will guide them; I will turn the darkness into light before them and make the rough places smooth. -Isaiah 42:16

Be kind and patient.

The Lord appeared to us in the past, saying: "I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with loving-kindness." -Jeremiah 31:3

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and peace. -Colossians 3:12
